"This is the only place where I can always get shoes which suit me in every way."

That's the point exactly; the shoe store that is worth the most to you is the store where you can always be perfectly satisfied with whatever you get—with the fit, with the price, with everything.

A MOST NARROW ESCAPE.

Children of William Fetter in a Dangerous Runaway and Smash-up.

A double-team phaeton containing the two small children of W. A. Fetter dashed up Nuuanu street shortly after noon yesterday, took a wheel off of a passing vehicle, ran into a telephone pole and came to a sudden halt. Both horses were scarred and the shaft of the vehicle was broken. One of the children was thrown out at the first collision. The other clung to the seat and alighted when it stopped. Both had remarkable escapes from death.

Mr. and Mrs. Fetter had called to take Duke McNichol and wife for a drive. They had just stepped out of the carriage when the horses bolted. Wm. Carlyle reached the bit of one of the animals but could not hold it.
